Dear Suman,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing in connection to our conversation about your talk at Presidency University. We would really to hear you speak about your work. Personally I am really interested to hear you speak on things like Everyday politics in West Bengal or Changing modes of Governance across regimes in West Bengal. Of course you are absolutely free to decide on the topic of your choice. I have copied my colleague Dr. Garima Dhabhai, who is the seminar committee convenor.

Warm Regards
Zaad

Dear Zaad da,

Thank you for the email. As we discussed in IDSK, yes I will be very happy to talk about the discontents of people with the left regime beyond the meta narrative of Singur and Nandigram through what I found in my ethnography and I will conclude by explaining what makes present regime to embrace identity politics. Roughly I will speak on my first book. I am open to your suggestions to alter my talk.

Best

Suman

Dear Dr. Nath,

Thank you for accepting our invitation to deliver a talk in our department. We really look forward to it. Would any Wednesday in the first half of September work for you? Following your response, I would schedule the talk and send you a formal invite. We usually start the session at 3.30 pm and have the talk for around 45 minutes, followed by a discussion.

Let me know what date works best for you. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Regards,
Garima

Garima,

Thank you for inviting me. Yes, that works for me, however it seems that the first Wednesday in the month of september is a holiday for Janmastami, so i have no problem on 13th. I can come on sixth too only if it works for you since it's a holiday.

Looking forward to the programme.

Best

Suman

Dear Dr. Nath,

Thank you so much for confirming. I will schedule the talk on the 13th of September. Will send you a formal invite soon. If possible, could you please share a working title and abstract of your talk?

Looking forward to it!

Regards,
Garima
